Joint membership is available for two members at the same address who are classed as partners for tax purposes.

* From July the subscription includes next year's membership.

Associate Membership

Associate membership is available to full members of other U3A's. Associate members do not pay the Third Age Trust Membership Fee or receive the Third Age Matters magazine through Pershore U3A. To qualify for Associate Membership proof of membership of another U3A is required.

Cotswold Link U3A

Members of other U3A's which are members of the Cotswold Link U3A are entitled to join one Pershore U3A interest group (space permitting) without joining Pershore U3A. Although there are no membership fees, the Interest Group may charge for attendance, or membership of that group, for which the Cotswold Link member will be liable to pay. To take advantage of this offer the Cotswold Link members are required to complete this application form and have their details entered on our Beacon Database.

GIFT AID

If one (or both) is a taxpayer you can enable us to take advantage of the Government Gift Aid scheme, which allows us to reclaim tax on your subscriptions until further notice. Please tick if you are happy for us to do this & ensure we have your full names above for HMRC purposes. If only one person is a taxpayer that person can pay the combined fee which we can then claim back. Please ensure that the taxpayer is the First Person named and signs the declaration.
