

Pershore & District

Creative Writing Group

Ever thought of trying to write a short story? Finish off this story in 1000 words or less and win a £15.00 book token. Entries to be in handed in to Jan Wortley (GL of the Creative Writing Group) on or before the monthly meeting on 19 March, 2013 or sent to Elm Cottage, East Waterside, Upton-upon-Severn, Pershore, WR8 0PB or e-mail janwortley@talktalk.net

Taken from 'The Hours' by Michael Cunningham.

“She hurries from the house wearing a coat too heavy for the weather. It is 1941 and another war has begun. She has left a note for Leonard and another one for Vanessa. She walks purposefully towards the river, certain of what she will do, but even now she is almost distracted by the sight of the downs, the Church and the scattering of sheep